MEET THE SPEAKERS

Anne Policastri, PharmD, MBA, FASHP, FKSHP

Anne Policastri is a graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy. She received her MBA from Murray State University. Dr. Policastri has extensive experience in health-system pharmacy, from staff pharmacist to Vice President for Professional and Support Services.

Education of the next generation of pharmacists is a passion of hers, having been a preceptor for many years for both students and residents, as well as being a founding Residency Program Director. Prior to coming to ASHP, she was a full-time faculty member at the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy.

Dr. Policastri has served in a variety of capacities for state and national pharmacy associations. She is a Kentucky Society of Health-System Pharmacists Past President, served as Executive Vice President for KSHP from 2012-2018, and received KSHP's highest honor being named an Honorary Member in 2019. She is a Fellow of KSHP and ASHP. Currently, Dr. Policastri is the Director for Affiliate Relations at ASHP.

Anthony Trovato, PharmD, MS, BCPS

Anthony graduated from the University of Utah College of Pharmacy in 2016 and then completed his PGY1 and PGY2 Drug Information Specialty Residency and a Masters in Health-System Pharmacy Administration at the University of Utah Health. He loves working with various teams on medication-use policy and safety projects. Anthony also enjoys serving in the Utah Society of Health-System Pharmacists and the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists.

Jeanette Bean, PharmD, BCPS

Jeanette Bean is originally from Michigan where she was raised as #12 of 14 children on a blueberry farm. After receiving her bachelor's degree in pharmacy from Wayne State University in Detroit, Jeanette earned her PharmD from the University of Florida. She has more than 20 years of experience as a clinical pharmacist with several years focused on post-operative pain management. She is currently the Pharmacy Operations Manager at St. Mark's Hospital where she is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the inpatient pharmacy, ensuring that patients' medication needs are met. She also leads the pharmacy technician team and manages team members' performance, growth, and career development. Jeanette believes that no task is too small, nor any job too big to be completed with care and compassion with a patient-first focus.

Jeanette enjoys spending time with her family and friends, hiking, cooking, and reading mindless works of fiction. She is crazy about animals (which she blames on being raised on a farm) and currently has a dog and 2 cats.

Megan Evans, PharmD, BCPS

Megan graduated with her PharmD from the University of Utah in 2010. She completed her PGY-1 residency at Providence Sacred Heart Medical Center and Children's Hospital in Spokane, WA. She has over 10 years of hospital pharmacy administration experience from St. Joseph's Hospital in Tucson, AZ, and St. Mark's Hospital in Salt Lake City, UT. She currently works as the Pharmacy Research Manager for ICON plc, a Phase 1 Clinical Research Organization.

Daniel M. Witt, PharmD, FCCP, BCPS

Daniel M. Witt, Pharm.D., FCCP, BCPS is a Tenured Professor and Chair of the Department of Pharmacotherapy at the University of Utah College of Pharmacy. He received a B.S. degree in pharmacy from the University of Utah and a PharmD degree from the University of Washington. He completed a Clinical Pharmacy Residency at the University of Washington and Harborview Medical Centers, Seattle, WA, and an Advanced Residency in Primary Care and Family Medicine, University of Washington. Dr. Witt has authored or co-authored over 100 journal articles, 11 book chapters, and given numerous lectures for continuing education programs. His research interests center on providing practical information regarding the optimal use of anticoagulation therapy to front-line practitioners and patients. He was a panel member for the 2012 CHEST Consensus Guidelines for Antithrombotic therapy and as Chair and a panel member for venous thromboembolism guidelines developed by the American Society of Hematology. Dr. Witt also serves on the Medical & Scientific Advisory Board of the National Blood Clot Alliance and is a member of the American College of Clinical Pharmacy, American Society of Health-Systems Pharmacists, and the International Society on Thrombosis and Haemostasis.

Jennifer Bishop, PharmD, BCPS

Jennifer graduated with her PharmD from Roseman University in 2010. She works at St. Mark's Hospital (HCA Healthcare), starting in 2011. She is currently the Residency Program Director for St. Mark's Hospital, beginning in 2016. She is also actively working as Secretary for the USHP Board of Directors, as well as Resident CE Series Co-Chair for the programming committee.
